HOUSE ROCK FARM.

Rhode Island Reds For Meat or Eggs.

BROODER HOUSE AT HOUSE ROCK FARM.

The traveler up and down Pleasant street when about half-way between the villages of East Weymouth and Lovell's Corner, is struck with the neat and tidy appearance of several well-kept cottages and a large array of outbuildings, small and great, artistically painted in red and brown, and covering a large area of ground, and if the traveler is new to the place, his inquiry is: What is that?

In brief, it is "House Rock" farm which derives its name from one of the most peculiar rock formations to be found in the New England States. This farm extending from Pleasant street to Whitmore's pond, is the property of Hon. C.

M. Bryant, major of Quincy, and was originally purchased by Mr. Bryant on account of the gunning stand at Whitmore's pond, but from time to time additions have been made until it has grown to national significance.

The visitor may be met by Leonard M.
Trotter who is in charge, and while the ducks and geese, which are used in connection with the shooting season, are of some interest, the real feature of the place is the poultry department, or rather "Rhode Island Reds," as no others are raised.

Mr. Bryant has made a specialty of this fowl and no pains have been spared to have the best equipped establishment in the land.

In the incubator department there are twelve incubators of the most improved pattern and with a capacity of three thousand eggs.

The brooder house, which is one hundred and eighty-seven feet long by seventeen feet wide, is constructed on the most approved plan with a nursery department where the infant chicks are placed and have more than a mother's care.

There are twenty-one pens in this brooding department, each are arranged for a larger growth of fowl than the one before it, and every few days the chicks are passed up a grade, until they arrive at the adult stage, where their life ends, or they are preserved for egg-producing or breeding purposes.

The visitor is next taken to a long building in which are several pens of choice, prize-winning fowl of both single and rose combs, and one can but admire the clean, uniform appearance of these birds, and right here our attention is called to egg production. As we were admiring the ducks and geese, which are used in con-

some interest, the real feature of the

FIFTY YEARS OF CHURCH LIFE

Pilgrim Church of North Weymouth Passes Into Its Second Half Century.

The recent observance of the fiftieth anniversary of Pilgrim Church of North Weymouth was celebrated in such a manner as to prove exceedingly delightful and interesting to the people and friends of that church and parish; and such an event is naturally of interest to the people of the whole town, to all the fraternity of Christian churches in the locality, and to the younger generation growing up in our midst to whom half a century seems a long period of time.

While the present is a period of church planting in the west, the former centuries prior to this time, and a fortnight previous to that a Ladies' Sewing Circle had been organized. Thus the good women proved to be the pioneers in the movement and led the way in what followed. The Sewing Circle still exists as an indispensable institution in the church.

In an anniversary sermon preached in the Old First Church in 1851 the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Joshua Emery, stated among other things that if the time had not already come it did not seem to be far distant when it would be necessary to enlarge the meeting house or else send forth another company to form a new church in some other portion of the old parish. Already the mother church had sent forth two new churches from its membership, these being the Old South Church of South Weymouth in 1821; and the Union Church of Weymouth, and Braintree in 1811. The middle of the nineteenth century found the ancient parish still strong and prosperous, with a congregation which filled the seating capacity of the building, and with strategic quarters. The number of families reported as being identified with the parish was 182; and the number of church members was given as 298.

Viewing these figures in the light of today they do not appear to have been large; but those were among the days when it was the custom for most people to attend church services whether they were church members or not. It is evident that the people of that part of the parish known as Old Spain were not slow in acting upon the suggestion of the Rev.

Mr. Emery, for the very same year the foundations of a new place of worship were laid, the frame was raised in August, the spire pointed upward on the 22nd of November, and on the 24th of December the bell was placed in position ready to ring in the Christmas eve.

Early the next year fifty-one persons were granted letters of dismission from the First Church that they might constitute what was to be known as the Pilgrim Church located about one mile northeast of the mother church. The separation was not because of any strife or discord, but it was a natural outgrowth of what might also be called a natural "dividing" of active workers. The time had come for such a move, as the increasing population of the north village called for the existence of a church organization in its own midst. It may be of interest to the older inhabitants of Weymouth and also to their descendants to read the names of those who constituted the fifty-one charter members of the new enterprise ever since known as Pilgrim Church. They appear on the records in the following order: David Pratt, 3d, Eleanor Pratt, Ois. Blanchard, Paulina Blanchard, Irene H. Blanchard, Salome R. Robinson, Abigail D. Thomas, Mary R. Thomas, Jacob Shaw, Sarah Shaw, Mary P. Shaw, Sarah Dyer, John Cushing, Henry Newton, Jane F. Newton, Oliver Newton, Sarah Louger, Deborah Ford, Charles Ford, Hannah Stoddard, Susan Bicknell, Susan Bicknell, 2nd, Daniel H. Vining, Anna Vining, Ann M.

Vining, Louisa Vining, Lewis Beale, Sarah Beale, Thomas Cleavelly, Elizabeth Cleavelly, John Binney, Anna B. Binney, James Torrey, Catherine Torrey, Ann W.
Hubbrook, Harrison Bicknell, Jane L.
Bicknell, William French, Hannah French, Sophia Pratt, Carlissa Bates, Mary Lovell, Abigail Bates, Mary White, Cotton Lovell, Betsey Lovell, Mary Pratt, Lemuel Torrey, Nancy S.
Torrey. Of this number, but three have survived, to witness the semi-centennial; these are Mrs. Irene Blanchard Ewell, Mrs. Mary Lovell, Abigail Bates, and Vining Burgess, all the others having passed on to that home from which no traveler returns.

On that memorable day, March 11th, 1852, nature seemed to smile upon the undertaking. The day was warm and beautiful, so much so that many of the older people vividly recall the weather as well as the occasion. It was one of those bright and happy days which serve as harbingers of early spring. The house was filled with attentive hearers, and the services were solemn and impressive.

After the church was duly organized the Rev. Dr. Storrs of Braintree preached the dedicatory discourse, and Rev. Mr. Cushing extended to the young church the right hand of fellowship of the churches of Christ. Rev. Messrs. Harding and Torrey of Weymouth, Dyer of Hingham, Perkins of Weymouth, and Clark of Quincy all took part in the services of that day.

The next and first Sabbath of the new sanctuary, the people listened to Calvin Terry of Edinboro, Conn., who preached on that Sabbath and for three or four Sabbaths following as a candidiate. He was called to the pastorate of the church and installed on the 18th day of the following May. David Pratt, 3d, and James Torrey were chosen as the first deacons, and Robert Burdell as superintendent of the Sabbath School.

That year, 1852, found Weymouth with a population of some 5,000 and with eight churches. Including Pilgrim Church, and George S. Howland was governor of the state. Millard Fillmore was presiding over the destinies of the Republic and was filling out the term of service left vacant by the death of Zachary Taylor. It was the year in which both Henry Clay and Daniel Webster died. It was also the year in which Louis Kosuth, the Hungarian patriot, came to these shores to plead the cause of his oppressed countrymen. The slavery question was waxing hot and fierce, and in those days when many churches and individuals were seeking to occupy a compromise position this church placed itself upon record in resolutions which were clear and unequivocal and which have been pronounced as being one of the wisest deliverances on the subject to be found anywhere.

When the period of disunion burst upon the land some nine years later and the people found themselves in the midst of dark and dismal days, from thirty-five to forty men who were either identified or affiliated with Pilgrim Church and parish went forth to fight under McClellan, Hooker, Meade, and then under that peerless commander, Grant. Their names as far as can be gathered at present are as follows: Ferdinand J. Barnes, Stephen Bates, William L. Bates, E. Frank Beale, Austin P. Beard, Francis A. Bicknell, John Binney, Alonzo W. Blanchard, Charles H. Burdell, Richmond Burdell, Richmond P. Burdell, Albert Clark, An-draw Colley, Alfred T. Cushing, George C.

Cushing, Henry F. Cushing, Edward H.
Davis, Horatio A. Davis, Adrianus Denbroeder, James B. Ford, Samuel L. French, George H. Livingston, Benjamin F. Pratt, George L. Newton, Josiah H. Pratt, Samuel Pratt, John Roachman, George Ruggles, Harris H. Spincy, B. Frank Thomas, Nelson Thomas, Daniel Vining, Daniel H. Vining, Edwin Walker, Isaac H. Walker. More than once the solemn tolling of the church bell was heard during those terrible years in honor of some soldier dead; and since that bell was placed in the steeple on the 24th day of December, 1851, it has sounded the sad knell of three married presidents of these United States. May it never have occasion to toll out another such message!

Eight pastors have served the church during its history and in the following order: Rev. Calvin Terry from 1852 to 1857; Rev. S. L. Rockwood from 1857 to 1861; Rev. L. B. Voorhees from 1861 to 1865; Rev. George Dodson from 1865 to 1869;
Rev. H. Tyler from 1869 to 1871; Rev. W. A.
Leland from 1871 to 1873; Rev. Alan Hudson from 1873 to 1875; Rev. Thomas H. Vincent from 1875 to the present time. After closing his pastorate, Rev. Calvin Terry made his home in North Weymouth and died in

SICK, WEAK, AILING WIFE

Dr. Greene's Nervura is the Remedy Sure to Make Her Well.

The man who has a sick wife has a great burden upon him, but his burden is light compared to that of his sick wife. She may not be sick all the time, but she is ailing all the time; she is weak, nervous, irritable, and tired out. She is sleepless nights and wakes mornings feeling tired, without energy or ambition, discouraged, dragged out, and indifferently miserable. Her head aches, her back aches, she cannot eat, is constipated, melancholy, and so nervous at times that she feels as if she should fly. She feels just good for nothing and is tired all the time.

How quickly will the weight of her burden of disease be lifted if she will take that greatest boon to woman-kind, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy! How quickly it will relieve her weakness, her nervousness, her pain and aches, her hopeless depression of mind and heart, and how speedily it will restore her strength, renew her vitality, vigor, energy, power, and the pulsing life which means happiness for woman!

Dr. Greene's Nervura is indeed a blessing for weak, nervous, and depressed women. It is the only medicine which means happiness for women, their health, strength, hope, happiness, and life itself!

Mrs. James Rock, a well-known lady living at 148 Washington Street, Pechin, N. Y., says:

About fifteen years ago I was taken very sick. After seven months I got over that, but have never been well since. I have suffered terribly with pain in the chest, back, kidneys, and head. There was a disagreeable feeling in the eyes and I would be very sick in the morning. My mind was always gloomy and I felt very low-spirited. I had terrible numbness and would have to be rubbed some time before I could get around. Some of these numb spells were so severe my friends thought I would not recover from them.

I tried doctors and medicine, but got no better. Finally I began the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, as my husband had been most miraculously cured by it. After using it a short time there was a most wonderful improvement.
I continued to use it until I was able to respect myself as a woman and to do my household duties.

This wonderful medicine has cured my husband and myself of the most fearful suffering, but this was not all. I now want to tell about my little girl.

"She has never been well since —Charles Gutierrez has been making a business trip through New England this week.

—Harold Wellington escaped what might have proved a serious accident on Sunday last. He had driven to Quincy in the company with his father and mother, and while waiting on the street for Mr. Wellington, who was calling at a home there, an automobile was seen approaching. Fearing the horse might become frightened, he started dashing wildly along, breaking the shafts and whiffles and dragging Harold quite a distance. He however, held him as long as possible, receiving no serious injuries, but many had bruises, especially about his face and head. His limbs also were very stiff and sore, but he is to be congratulated on his narrow escape.

—Mrs. George Hayden is ill with bronchitis.

—W. B. Clapp spent Monday and Tuesday of this week in New York.

The Great Headache Cure

Quick - Safe - Sure

DR. MILES' PAIN PILLS

Cures all kinds of Pains and Aches.

In my intense suffering from chronic neuralgia, I found Dr. Miles' Pain Pills better than the gold of Ophir.

Shirazu Machi, Akasaka, Tokyo, Japan.

With this I am ordering more of the Pain Pills. Both Japanese and foreign friends have used the Pills and they all tell me I am never better than when I use them.

Shirazu Machi, Akasaka, Tokyo, Japan.

During many years I could not ride in a street car, or even on a horse, without suffering with headache. I tried many different remedies with little or no relief. For one month I was unable to work.

Dr. Miles' Pain Pills not only relieved me at once, but I have not had a headache since.
